

WHAT DO DO IF YOU HAVE CAR BUYER'S REMORSE

REMEMBER YOU'RE NOT POWERLESS

Be kind to yourself - women often second guess ourselves and internalize when we feel taken advantage of. Don't beat yourself up over hasty decisions made without guidance - a regrettable deal is often fixable - now do what you can to feel good about the car you work hard to pay for.

GET OUT YOUR PAPERWORK

Contracts, bill-of-sale, banking and financing information and aftersell item agreements. Look for cancellation policies on anything you regret purchasing or aren't sure of the value.

CANCEL WHAT YOU REGRET PURCHASING

You can usually cancel mechanical warranties, tire and dent protection and pre-paid maintenance for a pro-rated refund. You typically can't cancel anything physically applied to the car like paint protection.

REFINANCE

Regardless of whether you've had your car for three months or two years, you can usually refinance with a credit union. Online options make it easier than ever to get a better rate or terms if you're unhappy with the loan you have.

SELL OR TRADE IT

Sometimes, a car is a bad fit for our lifestyle. If you need to sell or trade the car, you'll need to know your current payoff balance (what you owe) and it's value (what it's worth).
